

Privacy Policy

October 17th 2008

We are committed to safeguarding the privacy of our website visitors; this policy sets out how we will treat your personal information.

(1) What information do we collect?

We may collect, store and use the following kinds of personal data:

- (a) Information relating to any transactions carried out between you and us on or in relation to this website, including information relating to any purchases you make of our goods or services (including your name, delivery address, items purchased and the value of items purchased). We do not have access to, or store Credit or Debit card details for transactions carried out online as they are processed by PayPal, however we will require particular Credit or Debit card details (required by Paypal) to complete transactions in person or by telephone. (We do not accept Credit or Debit card details by any other means).
- (b) Any other information that you choose to send to us (including confirmation of delivery, product satisfaction or feedback).
- (c) Information about your computer and about your visits to and use of this website (including your IP address, geographical location, browser type, referral source, length of visit and number of page views).

(2) Cookies

A cookie consists of information sent by a web server to a web browser, and stored by the browser. The information is then sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server. This enables the web server to identify and track the web browser.

We may use "session" cookies to keep track of you whilst you navigate the website; and we may use "persistent" cookies to enable our website to recognise you when you visit.

Session cookies will be deleted from your computer when you close your browser. Persistent cookies will remain stored on your computer until deleted, or until they reach a specified expiry date.

We may use Google Analytics to analyse the use of this website. Google Analytics generates statistical and other information about website use by means of cookies, which are stored on users' computers. The information generated relating to our website is used to create reports about the use of the website. Google will store this information. Google's privacy policy is available at: <http://www.google.com/privacypolicy.html>.

Our payment services providers "PayPal" may also send you cookies.

Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies. (For example, in Internet Explorer you can refuse all cookies by clicking "Tools", "Internet Options", "Privacy", and selecting "Block all cookies" using the sliding selector.) This will, however, have a negative impact upon the usability of many websites, including this one.

(3) Using your personal data

Personal data submitted on this website will be used for the purposes specified in this privacy policy or in relevant parts of the website.

We may use your personal information to:

- (a) Administer the website;
- (b) Improve your browsing experience by personalising the website;
- (c) Enable your use of the services available on the website;
- (d) Send to you goods purchased via the website, and supply to you services purchased via the website;
- (e) Send statements and invoices to you, and collect payments from you;
- (f) Send you general (non-marketing) commercial communications;
- (g) Send you email notifications, which you have specifically requested;
- (h) Send to you our newsletter and other marketing communications relating to our business or the businesses of carefully-selected third parties, which we think may be of interest to you by post or, where you have specifically agreed to this, by email or similar technology. You can inform us at any time if you no longer require marketing communications.
- (i) Provide third parties with statistical information about our users – but this information will not be used to identify any individual user;
- (j) Deal with enquiries and complaints made by or about you relating to the website;

Where you submit personal information for publication on our website, we will only publish and otherwise use that information in accordance with the license you grant to us.

We will not without your express consent provide your personal information to any third parties for the purpose of direct marketing.

All our website financial transactions are handled through our payment services provider, PayPal. You should only provide your personal information to PayPal after reviewing the PayPal privacy policy (available at www.paypal.co.uk). We will share information with PayPal only to the extent necessary for the purposes of processing payments you make via our website.

(4) Disclosures

We may disclose information about you to any of our employees, officers, agents, suppliers or subcontractors insofar as reasonably necessary for the purposes as set out in this privacy policy.

In addition, we may disclose information about you:

- (a) To the extent that we are required to do so by law;
- (b) In connection with any legal proceedings or prospective legal proceedings;
- (c) In order to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights (including providing information to others for the purposes of fraud prevention and reducing credit risk); and
- (d) To the purchaser (or prospective purchaser) of any business or asset which we are (or are contemplating) selling.

Except as provided in this privacy policy, we will not provide your information to third parties.

(5) International data transfers

Snowscene do not transfer or store any personal data outside of the UK, however personal information that you submit for publication on the website may be published on the Internet and will be available, via the Internet, around the world.

You expressly agree to such transfers of personal information.

(6) Security of your personal data

We will take reasonable technical and organisational precautions to prevent the loss, misuse or alteration of your personal information.

We may store some of the personal information you provide on our secure (password- and firewall- protected) servers.

We do not store any Credit or Debit card details for transactions (or attempted transactions) made in person, or by telephone in any way.

We do not have access to, or store any details for all electronic transactions you make to, or receive from us as they are processed by PayPal. (Please visit www.paypal.co.uk for security details).

Of course, data transmission over the Internet is inherently insecure, and we cannot guarantee the security of data sent over the Internet.

You are responsible for keeping your password and user details confidential. We will not ask you for your password.

(7) Policy amendments

We may update this privacy policy from time-to-time by posting a new version on our website. You should check this page occasionally to ensure you are happy with any changes.

We may also notify you of changes to our privacy policy by email.

(8) Your rights

You may instruct us to provide you with any personal information we hold about you. Provision of such information may be subject to the payment of a fee (currently fixed at £10.00).

You may instruct us not to process your personal data for marketing purposes by email at any time. (In practice, you will usually either expressly agree in advance to our use of your personal data for marketing purposes, or we will provide you with an opportunity to opt-out of the use of your personal data for marketing purposes.)

(9) Third party websites

The website contains links to other websites. We are not responsible for the privacy policies or practices of third party websites.

(10) Updating information

Please let us know if the personal information that we may hold about you needs to be corrected or updated.

(11) Contact

If you have any questions about this privacy policy or our treatment of your personal data, please write to us by email to customerservices@snowscene.net or by post to Snowscene, PO Box 5201, Walsall, West Midlands, WS9 0BJ

(12) Data controller

The data controller responsible for our website is "Snowscene".

Our data protection registration number is Z1436092
